

PRESS RELEASE N° 1 - Wednesday, 3rd October 2018

On the starting grid the 41st Cividale-Castelmonte

The engines are warming up for the 41st edition of Cividale-Castelmonte, a tortuous international hill-climb. The entrants and the fervor increase for this competition organized by the tireless staff of the Scuderia Red White.

The weekend of 12-13-14 October is coming up, which will see the evocative landscapes of Cividale del Friuli, Carraria, Castelmonte and the municipality of Prepotto, theater of the international kermesse of cars and drivers valid for the Central European Championship FIA CEZ, Austrian Championship, Italian Hill climb Trophy and Alpe Adria Hill Climb Trophy.

Monday the 8th October at the stroke of midnight the entries form will close.

To date, the majority of entrants speak German, Austrians are more quicker to confirm their presence at this race. For them it would be the last and decisive race of the National Championship.

The Italian Federico Liber, one of the favorites to win, has already confirmed his presence on the race's demanding track. Among the certain racers for the modern cars there are also Josef Tarmann with his prototype Dallara Mercedes F302, Marietto Nalon with a single-seater Dallara, Karl Schagerl in the awesome group E1 with a VW Golf Rallye. Expected also the fellow citizen Gianni di Fant who will probably be at the start with a whole new Lamborghini Huracan. In the historic cars the first entries are by Silvio Andrighetti with a Lancia Stratos, Johannes Esterbauer with a Steyr Puch 650 TR and Gerald Glinzner with a Porsche 911 Carrera. Rino Muradore and Massimo Guerra are also expected.

From all over Europe fans and passionate come to take part in an event where cars of great prestige, historical and sporting value can be contemplated.

The Cividale-Castelmonte guarantees every year to its public a big show and a competition through the roof. The exciting track is 6.35 km long, with a difference in height between the start and the arrival 413 meters and an mean gradient of 6,4%.

On Friday 12th of October in Cividale del Friuli the competition will come alive from 2.30pm to 7.00pm with the opening of Administrative Scrutineering, at the Casa delle Associazioni in Via Carraria 101 (start) and Technical Scrutineering at Via Tombe Romane from 3:00pm to 7:30pm.
